

Truth Comes Down by Jerry Axson She says she's never been with another man, there's just a few things I don't understand, Where'd she learn to move like that? every night I get a cardiac! When the work is done she draws the fastest gun... When the truth comes down and she's not around, you know my hearts gonna' beat to different sound, when the truth comes down... She says she keeps my love true to heart, why do I feel so torn apart? I could be just another guy, giving her another way to get by, Why do opposites attract when the odds are stacked??? Shelly's On The Radio by Jerry Axson Somebody tell me what I'm suppose to do? everywhere I turn he reminds me of you, couldn't believe it - it can't be so, you know how I feel... She's on the radio, Shelly's on the radio, and it's obvious, I just can't win... She's on the radio, Shelly's on the radio, she's on the radio - again... I drive my car but not fast enough, trying to get away - things are looking rough, nothing ventured - nothing lost or gained, it's just the DJ... No Love Tonight by Jerry Axson Calling all the boys in black, down in the valley's below, lost in the "City - of - Thieves", clubs and Rock N' Roll shows, Aint' no room in the crowded smook, with your whiskey and beer, she don't even know your name, cause' there aint' no love in here, You move through the colored lights, you feel so out of place, something screams in the back of your head, and the blood goes to your face...	Tonight...no love tonight... Tonight...no love tonight... well you can try to run but you just can't hide, ...no love tonight... So you want to be responsible, for what you do with your life, told you once and that's enough, you won't listen to me twice, In the streets and up on the hill, where the band used to play all night, there's a hero that cries and a heart doesn't move, no one wants to fight, The Girl That He's Got by Jerry Axson All those nights we spent together, all the love I felt I should cherish, gave me strength and a reason to live, now you took it away - and it's hard to forgive... I want the chance you give him, I want the love he gets, I want the girl that he's got, I want the shoes he fits... You won't let go and I stay confused, it's a crying shame and you're to blame, such vicious circle we're falling into, you can say anything - but don't say it's true... Nobody Loves You (Like I Do) by Jerry Axson They talk about you, I hear every word they say, talking is easy, if the truth don't get in the way, Forty nine goodbyes, whisper softly in my ear, one of them's yours girl, that's the last thing I wanted to hear... They don't know what you do to me, they don't know how I feel about you, and you don't know what a good thing is, nobody loves you like I do... nobody loves you like I do... After the fire, after the heat has cooled down, you're gonna' wake up, and take a good, hard, look around,	Then I'm coming home, I'm coming home soon and you're mine, it's like I told you, I won't take no this time... Just Tell Me Goodbye by Jerry Axson She said two fools like us don't stand a chance, she tugs her hair and stands in ignorance, I try to act intense... just to strengthen my defense... it don't work too good, but it helps cool the pain... So don't - tell me that you loved me, no, don't - tell me a lie, just tell me - tell me that you're leaving, tell me - tell me goodbye... I wish that it would rain, I could take a walk, it aint' physical - I really want to talk, someone just like you... puts the "P" in preteen-blues... yeah, give him enough rope and he's bound to hang... I Will Remember You by Jerry Axson Tonight is long and - I don't know why, remembering faces from a long time gone by, kick back the bedsheets, there's a song on the radio, memories still burning like this cigarettes soft glow... There was a young girl, she was a good friend, right now it feels like I will never love like that again, sitting in her car, down by the park, talking about nothing, getting so close in the dark... I - I will remember you, no matter where I go, no matter what I do, I - I will remember you, time may run, but it can't slip out of view, I will remember you...2x We went to school together, we laughed and smiled about, crossing that line we knew nothing about, maybe it was a broken heart that made her turn to me, it didn't matter cause' in her arms was where I wanted to be... On through the summer it went - warm valley nights, holding on so tight to each other, trying to make it right, but summer nights turn cold and she went away from me, I didn't understand then what I now so clearly see... Someday I'm gonna' find my way there again, I don't know how and I don't know when, I might stand alone - there in the park, she'll still be with me and I'll whisper in the dark...	This Far Away by Jerry Axson Did you see her? did you tell her I'm not around? did you hold her? you were standing on sacred ground, Well I don't know what to do about - the two of you... I've been lied to, I've had my world turned inside out, I've been burned down, because I just found out about, All the time you stole from me - I couldn't see... But this far away things look different to me, this far away seems the best place to be, I can breath much easier and I know what to do - this far away from you... Did you steal her? did you take her away from me? does she want you? is it something she wants to be? All in love and war is fare - I shouldn't care... Sherry Ann by Jerry Axson I hope it's not too forward, me coming here like this, I tried to catch you earlier, but I guess we must have missed, I've had a bit too much to drink, I'm sure that you can tell, It's the only way that I could make my - courage swell... I know you keep the company, of lots of different men, and I want in a game, that I probably can't win, So before you laugh out loud, I've come here to confess, my deepest, darkest secret - I am just a mess...without you - Sherry Ann... Sherry Ann... Sherry Ann... Sherry Ann... Sherry Ann... Sherry Ann... My mother, she's afraid of you, my father doesn't care, my sister would do anything, to get me out of her hair, Now I don't think they understand, what I'm going through, there's not a whole lot in this world - I would not do... I overslept this morning, and I missed the city bus, spent the night in agony, just dreaming about us, I wish that I could make it stop, it's already in motion, so give me half a chance if you've - half a notion...I want you	Big River by Jerry Axson Big river running through my town, big river gonna' roll on down, To the bottom of the big blue sea, far away from you and me, Gonna' save every tear I cry, and when you ask me why, I can show you the living proof, I'm still in love with you, And it doesn't matter if I leave this place, big river runs no mans race, All the begging in the world won't change, big river wears no mans chains... Big river running through my eyes, dark river but it can't disguise, Broken lines all around my face, broken promises can leave that trace, Keep waiting for the well to dry, hear them whisper but I know I tried, To cup the water up to my mouth, couldn't help it when it all ran out,   All songs copyright by AxSongs Inc. a "Look at the Moon!" production All songs written by Jerry Axson All songs performed by Altered Moods
