

Everything Changes

by Jerry Axson

Everything changes,
nothing stays the same,
the only constant I know of,
is my humble name,
people that I loved -
and people who loved me, we move in different circles now, and we don't make time to see...

That everything changes,
and you can bet your last dime,
there ain't always good reason,
and it won't be the last time,
that everything changes,
you're left dancing in the wind, and just when you think you're about to land -
it all changes again...

Everything changes,
nothing stays the same,
we used to be so good together - now there's a strain on these chains, no, we don't talk about it, we probably never will,
let's just put this all behind us now, up and over that hill...

Cause' everything changes,
and you can bet your last dime,
there ain't always good reason,
and it won't be the last time,
that everything changes,
you're left dancing in the wind,
and just when you think you're about to land -
it all changes again...
it all changes again...
it all changes again...
it all changes again...

Silence Is Golden

(I Only Scream When I'm In Pain)

by Jerry Axson

Momma got married, more times than I could count, what she lacked in wisdom, she made up for in doubt, Daddy was a stranger, left me with the hand that I was dealt, God knows I forgive them both, it goes beyond my help...

Silence is golden -
(silence is golden...)

I only scream when I'm in pain, (don't make a sound...)
from the tiny breaks on my heart,
to the dull ache in my brain...
(you might be found...)

I'm not one for being beholden, to the fabric of the human stain,
silence is golden -
(silence is golden...)

I only scream when I'm in pain...
(don't make a sound...)

We moved a lot when I was younger, I never saw the same place twice, spent a lot of time just writing it down, left to my own device,
I keep a room in my soul now, a place where I can go, to face down all those demons, and things you don't want to know...

Untouched By Human Hands

(6AM Song)

by Jerry Axson

I took a job at night,
we need the extra cash,
it sure comes in handy, because it goes out fast,
I don't mind the late hours,
just a bad run of luck,
there's something about 6 AM just as the sun is coming up - and it's a long drive home...
I've got this time to kill...
and this old car keeps rolling on...
with one dumb fool behind the wheel...

You see you told me that you loved me - and I told you I was your man, now watch as I discover,
the painful truth about where I stand, you hide your love - away from me - yet give yourself - to any man...
I'm waking up - at 6 AM -
to a heart untouched - by human hands...

I took a job at night,
I need this time away,
to get my head on straight,
and give my heart a break,
I don't mind the late hours,
just a bad run of luck,
there's something about 6 AM
just as the sun is coming up -
and it's a long drive home...

You see you told me that you loved me -
and I told you I was your man,
now watch as I discover,

the painful truth about where I stand,
you hide your love - away from me -
yet give yourself - to any man...
to a heart untouched - by human hands...

Dedicated to me and for "Boogie"...because I never did take to that pedal steel guitar like he wanted me to.
